RED STAR COUGH CURE.

Free from Opiates and Poisons.

PROMPT, SAFE, SURE.

A NEW MEDICAL DISCOVERY.

Last year, in Philadelphia alone, as shown by the records of coroner's office, nearly six thousand children died from the effects of Cough mixtures containing opiates.

RED STAR COUGH CURE

is purely vegetable and harmless, free from morphia and all other opiates, also from all emetics and poisons.

HOW IT ACTS.

Dr. SAMUEL K. COX, D. D., Practical and Analytical Chemist, Washington, D. C., says that, to the thousands whose systems instinctively shrink from the use of morphia and opium, and especially to mothers, who justly dread the evil and, at times, fatal effects of these dangerous drugs, Red Star Cough Cure must prove a boon.

Rev. J. WATTS SHOAFF, formerly Pastor of Calvary M. E. Church, South, and now of Salem, Va., writes that Red Star Cough Cure gave him almost immediate relief from a severe cold which had settled on his throat and lungs; and that no depressing effects were felt from its use.

Rev. W. M. LEFTWICH, D. D., of Nashville, Tennessee, says that Red Star Cough Cure not only promptly removes coughs, but also promotes natural rest and builds up the system.

Mr. S. T. G. MORSELL, No. 927 N street, N. W., Washington, D. C., writes that Red Star Cough Cure gave him prompt and entire relief from a severe cough and irritation of the throat.

Mr. F. A. STIER, Book-keeper, Second National Bank, Washington, D. C., certifies that a few doses of Red Star Cough Cure relieved a very violent cough from which he suffered.

Similar testimony has been given by Ex-Governor McLANE, of Maryland, now Minister to France; Mayor LATROBE, of Baltimore; United States Senators GORMAN, of Maryland, and BLACKBURN, of Kentucky, and many Congressmen and prominent State and federal officials.

RED STAR COUGH CURE

is entirely free from opiates, narcotics, emetics and poisons. It leaves no bad effects. It does not derange the system. It is pure, pleasant, prompt. Sold by druggists and dealers in medicine throughout the United States.

FACTS * WORTHY * OF * NOTICE.

Many claims are made by interested parties as to the merits of the instruments they represent and sell. This is simply individual opinion, and cannot be substantiated by facts.

The Mason and Hamlin Organs have always obtained the first Prize at all the great World's Fairs in Europe and America over all others, which is the most conclusive evidence that they are the foremost instruments of the universe. This is an unanswerable fact.

STEINWAY PIANOS

need no puffery or idle clap-trap advertising to substantiate the universally admitted fact that they have no rivals in the world.

Steinway & Sons are the only Piano makers who manufacture their Pianos entire, all others purchase many vital parts in the open market, and put the instruments together. This is another unanswerable fact.

The Steinway Pianos and Mason and Hamlin Organs are universally acknowledged, all over the world, as the finest and best made. Endorsed by Wagner, Liszt, Theo. Thomas, Patti, Gerster, and all other great artists in both America and Europe.

The above instruments, with many others of first-class reputation, such as Hazelton Bros., Kranich & Bach, Behr Bros., Behning and Peek & Son Pianos, and the Wilcox & White, George Woods, and A. B. Chase Organs, form an array of the very best articles in our line, in the city. A full stock of second-hand Pianos and Organs constantly on hand, among which are to be found some great bargains.

We are determined not to be undersold by anybody, and if purchasers will but give us the opportunity, we can soon convince them that we give the most for the least money. Instruments also sold on easy monthly instalments.

Mechanical musical instruments in great variety, including the wonderful whereon a child can perform, with perfect ease, the most elaborate compositions.

We also beg leave to call attention to our extensive stock of Foreign and American Sheet Music, music books, and musical merchandise in general, including Music Folios and Rolls, Metronomes, Strings, Tuning Forks and Hammers, &c., &c.

Satisfaction guaranteed in every particular.

 Send for Catalogues.

"I present, to be recorded on your Journal, the following questions which have come before me by appeal of the Quarterly Conference of Staunton Station, from the decisions of the Presiding Elder, and my answer, extract from the Minutes of the Fourth Quarterly Conference (adjourned session) of Staunton, Rockingham District, Baltimore Conference Methodist Episcopal Church, South:"

STAUNTON, VA., March 9, 1885.

Brother Reeves Catt submitted the following questions to the Presiding Elder, Rev. J. C. Dice, the Chairman of the Quarterly Conference, for his decision:

1st. Is the organization of the stewards, with a president and vice-president, from among themselves, and of their own selection, authorized by the discipline of the Church?

2d. If such organization of the stewards meeting be authorized by the discipline, then what relation does the preacher in charge sustain to it, and what are the duties of the preacher in charge in regard to such meetings?

(Signed,) _____

REEVES CATT, Steward.

The following is the decision of the Presiding Elder:

In regard to the first question, I decide that such organization is not authorized by the discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

With respect to the second question, I decide that such meetings being unauthorized, the preacher in charge sustains no relation to and has no duties to perform in reference to such meetings.

(Signed,) _____

J. C. DICE, P. E.

Brother Catt appealed from the decision of the chair, to be submitted to the presiding officer of the next Annual Conference.

The following was also submitted to the chairman for his decision:

Is it against the letter or spirit of the discipline for a board of stewards to organize with a chairman, secretary and treasurer, selected from their own number, for the purpose of attending to the finances of the Church?

(Signed,) _____

A. A. ESKRIDGE,

C. W. HUNTER,

Stewards.

The chair decided that such an organization is not (in his opinion) contrary to the letter of the discipline, as the discipline is silent on the subject, but not in accordance with the custom of the Church in former years.

It was moved by Brother O. W. Hammond, and seconded by the secretary, that an appeal be taken from the decision of the Presiding Elder, in the above matter, and be submitted to the presiding officer of the next Annual Conference for his decision. It was ordered by the Quarterly Conference.

(Signed,) _____

C. W. HUNTER,

Secretary.

The decisions of the Presiding Elder are sustained with this additional explanation. The silence of the discipline is more significant by contrast with the provision that trustees shall elect their own chairman, secretary and treasurer. The official meeting furnishes an opportunity for considering the interests with which stewards are charged.

Nevertheless, a board of stewards may, without violating the letter or spirit of the discipline, elect its own officers, and hold meetings, presided over by its own chairman, to estimate the salary and travelling expenses of the preachers of the circuit or station ; and, also, when they have no preacher in charge, or by reason of sickness, or absence, or other cause, he cannot meet them, to consider other matters belonging to their office.

J. C. GRANBERRY.

The Report of the Committee on Temperance was presented and read.

On motion, the Report, as amended, was adopted.

REPORTS.

I.

MEMOIRS.

BISHOPS KAVANAUGH, PIERCE AND PARKER.

By the death of Bishops Kavanaugh, Pierce and Parker, the Church is bereaved.

If we do not also say that the faith of the Church is tried, it is because we know that wisdom and love guide in its affairs. Always, God loves the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob.

We cannot, with our poor sight, discern the gracious end to be attained by means so mysterious. We believe

"God is His own interpreter,
And He will make it plain."

This is not the time for eulogy, though the character of these chief pastors deserves it; nor is this the place in which to review lives so full of instruction, though they abound in lessons which we might study with profit.

But, it is our sad privilege to testify our sorrow while we bow in submission to His will who does all things well.

Your committee submits the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That this Conference hereby testifies its appreciation of the gifts, grace and usefulness of our deceased Bishops.

Resolved, 2. That our sorrow for their death has this relief,—they trusted Christ, lived for Christ, died in Christ, and, as we believe, are now with Christ.

Resolved, 3. That in the sudden death of Bishop Parker, who was expected to preside at this Conference, we are reminded of the uncertainty of life, and sustain a sense of personal and present loss.

Resolved, 4. That the Secretary of the Conference send a copy of this Minute to the families of Bishops Kavanaugh, Pierce and Parker; and that the Christian Advocate and Episcopal Methodist be and hereby are requested to publish the same.

NELSON HEAD, Chairman.

SAMUEL RODGERS, Secretary.

Rev. SAMUEL KEPLER.

The name of Rev. Sam'l Kepler, since the death of Dr. Poisal, has been at the head of the Conference roll, as the oldest member in its body. He was born in Baltimore, November 15, 1804, and died in the same city, August 1, 1884. His hoary head was a crown of glory, because found, uniformly, in the way of righteousness. Bro. Kepler consecrated all his endowments to God in early life, by uniting with the church, and entering into its ministry. This act he well maintained until by death he was translated to the church above.

While yet a boy he was converted to God through the instrumentality of the gospel taught and preached to him in the Sunday School in the old Eutaw Street Church, Baltimore. His conviction of sin and his spiritual birth, (by which he became a participant of divine grace,) awakened within him lofty aspirations to be a co-worker with his Master in building up the kingdom of righteousness on earth. Impelled thus by the love of Christ, he united with a number of young men, who had like desires with himself, to walk out to Hookstown, now Arlington, about four miles from Baltimore, where they established, and successfully conducted, a mission Sunday School. Two Methodist Churches and a mission now flourish, as the outgrowth of so small a beginning. While engaged in this work, and soon after his conversion, he had clearer convictions of a call to devote his life to the ministry. He yielded reluctantly to the divine command, and shrank with fear and trembling, appalled at the magnitude of responsibility, and his own insufficiency. In much prayer he sought relief, and then covenanted "to go only trusting in God."

With a view to preparing for his life work, he entered Asbury College, in Baltimore; but afterwards, his father removing to Carlisle, he entered Dickinson College, where he pursued his course of studies with diligence and zeal.

In March, 1827, Bro. Kepler was received on trial in the Baltimore Conference, and preached his first sermon in Wesley Chapel. In 1829, he was ordained deacon by Bishop Roberts, and in 1831, elder, by Bishop Hedding. For 44 years Bro. Kepler was in the active ministry. During that time he served about twenty-five appointments, extending over a territory from Greenbrier Co., in W. Va., to Lewistown, in Pa. The following were among the many appointments he received: 1833, Jefferson Circuit. 1834, Lewistown, Pa. 1835 and 1836, he was a member of the Philadelphia Conference. 1833, he served Bladensburg Circuit. 1834, Lexington Circuit. 1835, Lexington Station. 1836, Cumberland Station. In 1837, the Baltimore Conference divided, and he became a member of the East Baltimore Conference, and was stationed at Williamsport. 1839 and '60 his appointment was to Lewistown, Pa. 1861 and '62, to Bedford, Pa. During the years 1863, '64 and '65, he maintained an independent relation to the Methodist Church, and preached for an Independent Methodist Church at Williamsport, Pa. In 1867, he received an appointment from the Baltimore Conference of the M. E. Church, South, and was stationed at Harrisonburg. 1868 and '69, at Frederick city. 1870, North Baltimore. This was his last active service, for in 1871 he took a supernumerary relation. Yet he was not idle. Frequently he preached by invitation for ministers of various denominations, and never lost his intense interest in the welfare of his own church.

What manner of man was Bro. Kepler? He was a man of sound judgment, strong conviction, and candor of expression. In his habits he was diligent and frugal. In his manners, genial, but dignified. In his suffering he was resigned, peaceful and triumphant, and his lie was beautiful for its consecration and fruits. He was a diligent student of the word of God. On its precious promises and provisions he rested all his faith and hopes.

"If," said he in an address on the Bible, "the Deist tells me I am in error in cleaving to the Bible, I have only to reply, then I err with a Bacon, the confidant of nature; I err with Locke, whose pure philosophy only taught him to adore its still purer source; I err with Milton, ascending on an angel's wing to heaven, and like the bird of morn, soaring out of sight amid the music of his native piety."

In harmony with this true devotion to the word of God, was his high ideal of ministerial dignity and propriety. He felt that the minister of God must live, move and have his being in a realm above suspicion or reproach. So conscientious was he with regard to these austere views, he was exposed to the unjust criticism of being haughty in his demeanor. The parchments received from the hands of Bishops Roberts and Hedding he preserved unstained, save by the touch of time, through an eventful period of half a century.

The end of Bro. Kepler's life was in harmony with his faith, his preaching and his living. In a sermon he preached on "absent from the body and present with the Lord," he said: "Fear not that absence from the body, which death occasions, but, on the other hand, thank God, and take courage. Either you shall have, like the Isrealites, a dry-shod passage across the river of death, or if, like Bunyan's pilgrim, you wade through, your feet shall feel the bottom, and your eyes shall see the shining ones ready to receive you on the sun-bright shore of immortality." In the last hours of his life he experienced the truth of this prophecy. He had no fear of the "swelling of Jordan." Ever fond of Zion's sacred songs, his choice hymn at this time was—

"My latest sun is sinking fast,
My race is nearly run;
My strongest trials now are past,
My triumph is begun."

During his latest illness, family devotions, which throughout life he so ardently advocated, were never neglected. When too weak to kneel, he would sit in his chair and lead in prayer. He had great liberty and power in prayer. When too feeble to engage in or understand conversation, he was not bereft of his wonted fervency in prayer. In his final hour he had a vision of celestial splendor. He lay gently sleeping; suddenly raising his eyes, as if gazing into heaven, his countenance brightened with such radiance as to fill the room. In this rapturous condition he continued for fifteen minutes, then the eyelids closed in peaceful sleep, and the soul was "absent from the body and present with the Lord."

Rev. W. H. WILSON.

William H. Wilson was born in Maryland more than sixty years ago. He died in Washington, D. C., in 1884. Forty years of his life were spent as a Methodist preacher in connection with the Baltimore Conference, which he entered in 1844.

In 1845 he was appointed to Lexington; 1846, Rockingham; 1847, Sweet Springs; 1848, Georgetown; 1849 and 1850, Harper's Ferry; 1851, Warrenton; 1852 and 1853, West River; 1854, Patapsco Station; 1855 and 1856, Whatecoat; 1857, Danville, (East Baltimore Conference); 1858, Asbury Chapel, (Baltimore); 1859, Bladensburg; 1860, Supernumerary; 1861, Union Square, (Baltimore.)

During the late civil war, Bro. Wilson was without a regular appointment and engaged in secular business; but, being in sympathy with the action of the Baltimore Conference, held at Staunton, 1861, he enlisted earnestly and actively in support of the movement that resulted in the M. E. Church, South, in Baltimore City.

In 1866 he was appointed to East Baltimore Station; 1867, Sunday School Agent; 1868, Taylor's Circuit; 1869, Sunday School Agent; 1870, Fairfield; 1871, Annapolis Mission; 1872, East Rockingham; 1873 and 1874, New Market; 1875, Moorefield; 1876 and 1877, Churchville; 1878 and 1879, Hillsborough; 1880, Supernumerary; 1881, Laurel and Grace; 1882, Bladensburg and Emory; 1883, African Mission, (Washington, D. C.); 1884, Superannuated.

Excepting a few years, his labors were given wholly to ministerial work.

Now that he cannot hear our inquiry or answer, we may ask what manner of man was he?

In person, small; But while "little in stature," let it not be supposed there was nothing in his person to command attention. If no other feature had sufficed to convince that he was a man of keen, searching mind, his deep-set, penetrating eyes would have marked him as such. Brusque in manners, sometimes sharp, always straightforward, he impressed others with his honesty who might not greatly enjoy the manner by which the impression was made. But if any shall infer that he was wanting in kindness, they will do his memory a grave injustice. Any exhibition of littleness in others, any want of fidelity in friendship, any taint of selfishness, aroused his indignation; nor did he stint the words expressive of his convictions. On the other hand, if a brother was in distress, he was ready with practical sympathy; if any needed a friend for defense, he would stand for them against the world; and in such a case as that last named, he was self-forgetting. Perhaps no man among us spent less time in the mental arithmetic, which is serviceable chiefly in counting the cost of friendship for men out of favor. He hated wrong, loved the right, had profound sympathy with the weak and helpless, and with a hand equally ready and bold, stood for their vindication.

Bro. Wilson was converted when a boy—it was thorough work. On the point of departure for a visit to another State, he heard of a camp meeting. Curiosity led him to delay and turn aside that he might see "this great sight." He became deeply convicted of sin, and, after wrestling in great agony in prayer, God spoke peace to his soul, and, like a sunburst, lifted upon him the light of his countenance. He was a vigorous thinker—a strong, original, able preacher. He was without the graces of oratory; his manner was unstudied and therefore natural. The lack of superior opportunities in early life, at times betrayed itself; but, notwithstanding any or all drawbacks, he was strong, earnest, able. And souls were converted under his ministry; yes, many souls will doubtless bless God forever for the word which he spoke preaching peace.

If any distinction should be made, it was more his function to call sinners to repentance than to edify believers. A certain sharpness of manner, a somewhat angular character, an impulsive nature, these and other peculiarities forbade what is called "popularity." But if he did not and could not win the general praise, he could and did what was far better—win men to know and love our Lord. Yet, let no one think he was wanting in appreciation of the kindness and courtesies of life. Few men had a heartier appreciation of kindness, and few acknowledged it more promptly or with greater heartiness.

In the death of William H. Wilson, a remarkable man disappears from the Conference and the Church. If he did not fill what some choose to regard the highest places in the Church, it was not because he had not many qualities to fit him eminently for them, but because some conditions which he could not control, and some which he did not control, interposed—because he was wanting in what some look upon as the minor qualifications, but which, in point of fact, are as important as others when a question of adaptation has to be settled.

Long-continued sickness and other painful circumstances repressed, at times, his joy; but he never lost his hold upon Christ. He stood firmly in the faith of the Lord who had saved him. Often, throughout his sickness, he testified his faith in the Son of God. As the close of his life drew on, the clouds passed away, the wind fell, and the soft light that might be that of the peaceful evening, or of the dawn of the unending days, cheered his heart.

And so, a strong soul, which could no longer be held by the poor wasted body, easily escaped to essay the lightsome air and boundless life of heaven.

REPORT No. 1 OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.Paine Institute.

Paine Institute, a Training School in which preachers and teachers of the colored race may be qualified for the work of the instruction of their people, is situated in Augusta, Georgia, and is presided over by Prof. Geo. W. Walker, assisted by Rev. W. C. Davis and Miss Sallie Davis.

This Institute was established on the recommendation of our last General Conference for the benefit of the Colored Methodist Episcopal Church in America—a Church now numbering 155,000 members. Its work was begun in 1883, and the results thus far accomplished demonstrate the utility of the scheme and the providential opening to our Church of this door of great usefulness.

There are eighty enrolled pupils from Georgia, Alabama, Tennessee and South Carolina. These are reported as making satisfactory progress in their studies. No primary pupils are received by the Institute; a requirement of ability sufficient to read the fourth reader, and of a knowledge of English grammar, being conditions precedent to entrance. A normal class for the benefit of the colored preachers in Augusta and throughout Georgia is held, but the work of the Institute is confined almost entirely to the young.

Paine Institute, in view of the work it proposes to do, and of the Church for whose benefit it has been established—a Church which has suffered because of its attachment for and relation to the M. E. Church, South, which, because of this attachment and relation, has been cut off from help from other religious bodies—a Church which has stood aloof from politics and has relied upon the M. E. Church, South, to help it to do the work which has been committed to it in the providence of God—is earnestly recommended to our people as worthy of their assistance and of their prayers.

The Board of Education recommends the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the Bishop be requested to designate a member of the Conference who shall be submitted to the Trustees of Paine Institute for their confirmation, to represent the Baltimore Conference on the Board of Trustees.

Resolved, 2. That our preachers be requested to bring the claims of Paine Institute to the attention of our people, and to give the people an opportunity to make contributions for its benefit.

N. HEAD, Chairman.

REPORT No. 2 OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.The Montgomery Female College.

The Montgomery Female College, situated at Christiansburg, Montgomery Co., Va., is presided over by Mrs. O. S. Pollock, a lady wonderfully adapted to the work in which she is engaged, and which is so successful under her management. The College, though not owned nor controlled by the Church, is under the patronage of our Conference, and the Board of Education very cordially recommends it as a school where the elements of a thorough education can be obtained under christian influences, and where every attention is given to the comfort and health of its pupils.

The Valley Female College.

The Valley Female College, situated at Winchester, in the beautiful valley of the Shenandoah, is represented by the president, Rev. J. P. Hyde, A. M., the Conference visiting Committee, and others acquainted with the institution, to be in a prosperous and growing condition. At the present time there are sixty scholars in regular attendance, thirty-two of the number boarding in the institution. Close attention is given to the physical comfort and religious culture of the pupils. The president is aided in his work by a full and efficient corps of teachers. We cordially recommend the Valley Female College to the kind consideration and patronage of our people.

The Wesleyan Female Institute.

The Wesleyan Female Institute, situated at Staunton, Va., and presided over by Rev. W. A. Harris, D. D., is a corporation under the name and style of "The Trustees of the Wesleyan Female Institute," incorporated by the General Assembly of Virginia by an Act passed March 16, 1849, and amended by Act passed March 22, 1853, and March 9, 1880.

At the close of the war the property owned by this corporation consisted of buildings considerably out of repair, and insufficient for the purposes had in view by the corporation. The corporation was in debt to the Preachers' Aid Society of the Baltimore Conference, M. E. Church, to the amount of $5,000, bearing interest, besides a floating debt.

By 1870 the school had increased to such an extent that the Trustees were compelled to secure larger and better accommodations. Eligible property was purchased at the price of $25,000, secured by interest-bearing bonds running through a series of ten years, and by a deed of trust on the property. To this property have been added three additional buildings at the total cost of about $20,000, which has been paid out of the receipts of the school. The original building and additions have been furnished at a cost of about $8,500, which has been paid out of the receipts of the school.

In the meantime, suit was instituted by the above named Preachers' Aid Society against the Trustees and judgment obtained for $5,000 with interest running back many years. A decree for the sale of the old Institute property was obtained, and the property sold and was bought for the Trustees for $7,750, which was considered exceedingly low. The object of the Trustees in purchasing at this sale was to re-sell at an advance, and thus obtain enough money to satisfy the judgment against them, the price at which the property was sold not being sufficient to satisfy this judgment. Property in Staunton depreciated. The Trustees held on for four years, and then were compelled to sell for $5,500. The difference between the amount received by the Trustees from the sale of this property, and the amount of the judgment against them, was a little less than $3,000. Taking the rents received from this property by the Trustees into consideration, the amount needed to meet this $3,000 was between $1,500 and $1,800. This last named sum was paid out of the receipts of the school.

The debt now due by the Trustees is about $28,000. The larger part of this is due to the holders of the bonds given by the Trustees on the purchase of the property now occupied by the school. These holders are Mr. J. M. Cochran, the original grantor, and Rev. W. A. Harris, D. D., the President of the school. The amount due to Dr. Harris is about $14,000, principal and interest. The remainder of the debt is due to Mr. Cochran, except a floating debt of about $1,000. The whole amount of this debt is now due and could be collected from the Trustees if the creditors so wished. In order to fund this debt, an Act of the General Assembly of Virginia was obtained in February, 1882, authorizing the Trustees to issue bonds to run not more than twenty years, redeemable at the option of the Trustees, and bearing interest at 6 per cent., payable semi-annually, secured by a mortgage on the real estate owned by the Trustees. By virtue of this power the Trustees have prepared coupon bonds of the denomination of $100 and $500, and have executed a mortgage on the property to secure their payment. The real estate owned by the Trustees has been valued by three men not connected with the Institute in any way at $35,000—as about two-thirds of its real value. The Trustees, at their last meeting, passed a resolution that all the earnings hereafter should be devoted to the liquidation of the debt, save what was needed for necessary repairs. The Trustees, at their last meeting, entered into a new contract with Dr. Harris, for the present scholastic year, on the basis of 40 per cent. of the net revenues going to Dr. Harris, and 60 per cent. to the Trustees—Dr. Harris taking all the bad debts as part of his per cent. The 60 per cent. coming to the Trustees is to be in cash.

By this arrangement, judging from the patronage given to the Institute in the past, there will be a considerable increase in the net receipts of the Trustees.

The Board of Education recommends the passage by the Conference of the following resolutions :

Resolved, 1. That the Conference approves of the new contract between the Trustees and Dr. Harris, and also of the purpose of the Trustees to use the proceeds of the Institute to liquidate the debt, and requests the Trustees not to depart from this purpose.

Resolved, 2. That the Conference requests the Trustees to fund their debt, or to make such other arrangements as will secure the property owned by the Trustees, at the earliest practicable moment.

Resolved, 3. That the Conference asks of the Trustees an itemized statement of the assets and liabilities of the corporation to be submitted to the next session of the Conference.

Resolved, 4. That the Conference, as heretofore, recommends the Wesleyan Female Institute to the confidence and support of our people.

Christian education must ever command the attention of christian people, and, in this day when so many institutions of learning are practically ignoring the christian religion, it behooves the Church of God to insist upon the necessity of throwing the influences of christianity around those in the schools and colleges as well as around those in the homes. Opportunities for christian learning are good within the bounds of our Conference and throughout our Church.

Randolph Macon College.

Randolph Macon College, presided over by Rev. W. W. Bennett, D. D., is well-known to all of our people. Its faculty is composed of five full professors and one assistant, doing full work.* The patronage extended to the College during the present year has been very gratifying to its officers. The number of students paying full tuition is nearly twice as large this year as those instructed free of charge. The current expenses of the College are met by the tuition fees supplemented by the collections for education taken annually in the Baltimore and Virginia Conferences.

The present indebtedness of the College is $13,000, bearing interest at six per cent. The College owns $20,000 in Virginia registered bonds, bearing six per cent. interest. The surplusage of interest received by the College after paying the interest on its debt is used to liquidate the debt.

It was recommended by the last session of our Conference that centenary offerings for education be set apart as an endowment fund for the College. These offerings have not been so large as was expected, not having reached the sum of $6,000. The Virginia Conference raised for this fund $20,000 last year.

The centenary fund is to be invested by the trustees, and its principal sacredly guarded and the interest only to be used.

In view of the importance of an endowment fund of not less than $10,000 for Randolph Macon College, the Board of Education recommend the passage of the following resolution :

Resolved, That a Children's Day be observed throughout the Conference, and a collection be taken which shall be given as the donors may designate, and where the collection is given no specific direction, it be turned over to the endowment of Randolph Macon College.

The Board recommend that the Conference, through the Joint Board of Finance, make an assessment for educational purposes of $2,000, for the benefit of Randolph Macon College.

Resolved, That the Bishop of this Conference be requested to appoint visitors to each of the institutions named in this Report.

N. HEAD, Chairman.

*The Board of Trustees, at their last meeting, elected another Professor, Richard Smith, M. A., to the chair of Greek and Oriental languages. Professor Smith is now, and has been for the past three years, at the University of Leipsic, in Germany. He will enter upon his duties at the beginning of the next session, and will be a valuable acquisition to the corps of instruction.

REPORT OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

It is with great gratitude that we find a decided increase in the statistical reports this year. These reports show an increase of 16 schools; 193 officers and teachers; 1,404 scholars; 187 conversions, and in expenses, $469. Excess of members in schools over members in Churches, 1546.

For still greater success in this part of Church work, we make the following recommendations:

SECTION I—SUNDAY SCHOOL GATHERINGS.

1st. We would urge the sending of delegates from every portion of our Conference, to the annual convention of the Baltimore Conference Sunday School Society. The order of exercises provided by its executive committee, we heartily endorse, and make a part of this report.

Order of Exercises for the Nineteenth Annual Convention of the Baltimore Conference Sunday School Society, M. E. Church, South, to be held at Warrenton, Va., July 7–10, 1885.

Addresses by Rev. W. L. Lynch and J. P. Houck, Esq.

8 P. M.—Closing exercises and Love Feast.

NOTE.—After the opening addresses on the different topics, the subjects will be opened to general discussion.

2d. Let the Sunday School day at District Conferences be so arranged as to bring together the greatest number of Sunday School workers.

3d. We would again emphasize the holding of institutes in every charge, and teachers' meetings in every congregation.

4th. Sunday School prayer meetings we deem indispensable to both teachers and pupils; that, together with united petition, they may bring themselves, and their work, to Him who alone can give the increase.

5th. As the line of battle between the Church and the enemies of all good is drawn so distinctly in the question of intoxicating drinks, we would urge the holding of special temperance meetings in all our schools, as often as practicable.

6th. As the observance of Children's Day in June last did much to advance this work, we would therefore recommend the observance of such a day during the month of June next; and that offerings made on that day be at once reported to the Treasurer of this Board, for needy schools in our Conference.

SECTION II.—EXPEDIENTS FOR GROWTH IN INTEREST AND NUMBERS.

1st. The Board considers it of pre-eminent importance that the interest and co-operation of parents be secured, and to enlist them, we suggest that frequent invitations be given them to attend, both to witness and engage in the exercises of the school.

2d. Inasmuch as the baptism of children is so seldom performed in public, let appointments be made at appropriate times for such a service in the presence of the Sunday School, and let the pastor use the occasion to explain and enforce the nature and obligation of this sacrament.

3d. As the devoted christian teacher is so essential in the salvation of the scholar, we would urge that the pastor be consulted in the appointment of teachers.

4th. That missionary bands be formed, to visit and bring in all persons not attending Sunday School—especially poor children.

5th. That special attention be given to sacred music.

6th. Let ministers preach with reference to the children at all times, and as often as practicable, arrange for a special sermon to the Sunday School.

7th. It is the conviction of your Board, that Sunday School entertainments will be far more satisfactory and beneficial, if, in them, the children be taught "To remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, it is more blessed to give than to receive." Acts 20: 35.

SECTION III.—LIBRARIES AND LITERATURE.

1st. For the more general diffusion of knowledge in doctrine and experience, as taught in our Church, we would most heartily recommend the replenishing of our libraries with books, setting forth, in easy manner, our doctrines, and biographies, giving the rich experiences of our fathers and mothers in the Church.

2d. We would also recommend an exchange of books between schools having books that have been read by all their scholars; and to facilitate this, we charge the members of this Board, in each district, with this work of exchange.

3d. We most heartily commend our own current literature, and urge that every school be amply supplied therewith.

SECTION IV.—RESOLUTIONS RECOMMENDED.

1st. Resolved, That a Committee of five persons, viz: T. J. Magruder, C. M. Brown, B. F. Ball, A. A. P. Neel and H. H. Garrigues, be and is hereby appointed a Committee to distribute the Centenary Fund, and any other monies that may be given the Board, for needy Sunday Schools; and that this Committee issue a formula, setting forth the conditions upon which funds will be granted.

2d. Resolved, That we cordially recommend Rev. B. F. Ball as Sunday School Agent, and request the Bishop to appoint him to that place.

T. J. MAGRUDER, President.

A. A. P. NEEL, Secretary.

IV.

REPORT OF BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

The Conference Board of Church Extension, in submitting its second annual report, deems it an occasion for congratulation that an enterprise of such recent date among us has already been so fruitful in good results.

The statement made before the Conference a few days since by Rev. Dr. Morton, Secretary of the Parent Board, presented a most encouraging exhibit of the general work. It was shown that a large number of Churches had been planted in that vast region of the far west, which, in view of its rapidly increasing population and resources, offers a most inviting and productive field for our occupancy.

Our own Conference Board, during the first year of its existence, as our last report indicated, rendered very substantial help to six needy Churches in our own territory. During this session, the number of applications for aid is largely in excess of those of last year, while the amount of funds at our disposal for distribution is in about the same ratio to the assessment. Out of $3,250.00 assessed, $1,991 have been paid. One-half of this being due to the Parent Board, leaves $995.50 for local uses. A balance of $72.05 remaining over from last year, increases this sum to $1,067.55. The aggregate of the amounts applied for, is $2,550, so that we are not able to meet 50 per cent. of the calls upon us. We have carefully considered the claims of each case and made such apportionment as the interests of the Church seemed to demand and our limited means would allow.

It is to be remarked, however, that in addition to the regular collections, upwards of $2,000 has been raised as a centenary offering for Church extension purposes in the bounds of the Baltimore Conference, so that more than $4,000 has been contributed for this object during the past year.

An appropriation of $400 has been made towards the completion of a house of worship at Mt. Jackson, Rockingham District. Through the indefatigable exertions of Rev. J. S. Hopkins, preacher in charge, a Church edifice valued at $3,500 is being erected in that thrifty and growing town—an entrepot of trade for a large region of country, and one of the most important localities in the valley of the Shenandoah. Frequent, but abortive attempts had been made in previous years to accomplish this end, and the remarkable success of the present undertaking is a surprise to all acquainted with the circumstances of the case. It was stimulated at its inception, like similar enterprises, by the prospect of help from our Board.

$100 have been donated to Pomunkey Church, Prince George's County, E. Baltimore District; $250 to Centenary Church, in Listonburg Circuit, Moorefield District—an appointment in Pennsylvania in the extreme northern portion of our work, which is steadily growing in interest and promise; and $50 to Fiery-Run Church, Linden Circuit, Washington District. An appropriation of $100 has been made to Salem Chapel, Newcastle Circuit, Roanoke District, which in all probability will secure the property to our Church. $50 have been appropriated towards the completion of a Church at Gainesville, a few miles from the historic ground of Manassas; and $100 to Tom's Brook Church, Strasburg Circuit, Winchester District.

It will be seen that these appropriations are being distributed through six different Districts of the Conference, so that nearly every part of our territory will share in the benefits of the fund.

We were reluctantly compelled to lay several applications over until our next annual meeting from want of means to meet them.

In view of the very important relation which Church extension sustains to our home work, we invoke in its behalf the hearty co-operation of both the ministers and laymen of the Conference. Will not the Presiding Elders and preachers in charge bring the subject distinctly before our people, and urge increased liberality towards an enterprise that looks to the cultivation and enlargement of our domestic field, as well as the extension of our denominational area and influence?

We refer to the report of the Treasurer for a detailed exhibit of the financial operations of the Board.

SAMUEL K. COX, President.

VI.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PUBLISHING INTERESTS.

The following interests have been considered by the Committee:

Publishing House.

Your Committee, after a careful consideration of the Agent's Report, is enabled to state and report:

1st. That the exhibits therein presented respecting the present condition of the Publishing House, showing the splendid prosperity which has crowned said interest during the year ending April 1st, 1884, and indicating the great interest manifested by our people in this our own popular House, showing that the business has steadily continued to increase and enlarge; that few embarrassments in its operation have been experienced; that its facilities for contract work are unsurpassed; that while there was on hand a stock of merchandise larger by $4,854.77 than the preceding year, the sales have exceeded those of the previous year $10,112.11; that there was expended for necessary improvements, machinery, &c., $15,951.49; that $41,225 of the four per cent. bonds were retired, thus rapidly reducing the indebtedness which has interposed to our detriment, and wrought such embarrassment in the past; that there has been in six years a retirement of $202,001.16 indebtedness, leaving still a debt of $148,875, which will in a few years be wholly paid—are highly gratifying, and we most earnestly commend the sagacity and ability of the managers.

2d. That our Sunday School literature is in a healthy condition; that new and valuable books are being added to the catalogue; that the sale of denominational and doctrinal books has been unusually large.

3d. That the House is worthy of, and should receive the most cordial and steadfast sympathy and patronage of preachers and people.

4th That we most faithfully commend the "History of Methodism," by our Bishop McTyeire, as a most valuable contribution to our Church literature, and one full of interest to every lover of Methodistic history, doctrine and polity.

Book Depository.

We heartily endorse and recommend to the consideration of our preachers and people the Book Depository, established in Baltimore, 71 W. Fayette street, by the Rev. B F. Ball. We cannot too highly commend the industry and energy as displayed by Brother Ball in the dissemination of our religious literature, and the books issued by the Publishing House, at Nashville, in the bounds of our Conference. We are gratified to know that the enterprise has proved a success, and ask for the re-appointment of Brother Ball, and urge upon our preachers and people to buy all their religious literature from him. We furthermore urge upon our preachers and people, to put in a practical form their kind words of commendation, by proving their "faith by their works"

The Christian Advocate.

We are gratified to be assured of the increasing popularity and prosperity of said paper; to know that its circulation has been constantly increasing, and now numbers 25,000 copies. We very cordially urge our people to an earnest support of this our most excellent and acceptable general organ of the Church. Our people should render earnest support to all the means used for the dissemination of the truth and the maintenance of Methodist doctrine, and therefore, we recommend the Christian Advocate to the preachers and people.

Missionary Papers.

Believing that the lack of interest in the missionary work of our Church is the result of insufficient information on the part of our people as to this movement, we recommend our missionary publications, the "Woman's Missionary Advocate" and the "Advocate of Missions," to the hearty and liberal support of our people.

The Episcopal Methodist,

Owned and edited by Rev. Wm. K. Boyle, we recognize as our own home paper, having a special claim upon the patronage of both preachers and people embraced in our Conference bounds. We are enabled, by the personal assurance of the editor, to more heartily commend the paper to the favorable notice of our people, because, in the future, it will more than ever contain, from time to time, original and valuable articles from the pens of able writers, whose services have been recently secured. Believing it to be a valuable adjunct to our ministerial labors, we recommend that the preachers continue a thorough canvass of their several charges, endeavoring, by all possible means, to place the paper in every Methodist home. We also request the re-appointment of Rev. W. K. Boyle to the editorship of the Episcopal Methodist.

Quarterly Review.

It is with pleasure that we learn of the increasing circulation of the Quarterly Review, under its present management. Dr. Hinton, the editor, is succeeding admirably in his arduous work of making the Review win its own way to public favor. We believe there is improvement, not only in mechanical work, but also in point of literary excellence. With a heartier support by our preachers and people, we think there would be still greater improvement. We cannot afford to do without this higher literary periodical, and therefore recommend that both preachers and people give it their earnest support.

Respectfully submitted,

JAS. H. BOYD, Chairman.

STUART F. LINDSEY, Secretary.

VII.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON THE BIBLE CAUSE.

We express again our faith in the circulation of the Holy Scriptures as an evangelizing agency, and therefore heartily commend to the liberality of our people, such calls as may be made upon them by State or other Bible Societies, within our bounds, to aid in their circulation. It is to be regretted that our receipts in aid of this cause are seventy odd dollars less this year than last.

The Secretary of the Virginia State Bible Society, with office in Richmond, in a communication to the Committee, calls attention to the fact that his "Society has arranged to furnish traveling ministers, in charge of circuits, &c., bibles at a discount from the regular publisher's list, of 25 per cent., to induce them to co-operate in the work of putting the bible in every home." He also gratefully acknowledges the receipt already of collections taken by members of this Conference, and expresses the hope that such of them as may be appointed to charges in the State of Virginia, may continue their co-operation with his Society, "in the great work it is endeavoring to accomplish." And we commend the sentiments herein recited to this body.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRY PHELPS HAMILL, Chairman.

VIII.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON DISTRICT CONFERENCE REGISTERS.

Your Committee, appointed to examine District Conference Register, begs leave to submit the following report:

The Washington District Register is a model of neatness, perfect in its arrangements, and contains full and excellent reports.

The Register of the Rockingham District, is next in general excellence to that of the Washington District.

The Baltimore, East Baltimore, Winchester and Roanoke District Registers, are well kept. The reports are full and they are properly signed.

The Register of the Lewisburg District is neatly and well kept, but not properly signed.

The Moorefield District Register could be greatly improved. It lacks neatness, and the reports of the preachers in reference to their work are extremely meagre.

Respectfully submitted,

T. W. BROWN, Chairman.

F. M. STROTHER, Secretary.

IX.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

The Committee on Temperance submit the following Report:

Believing the liquor business and the license system to be at variance with christian principles, good morals, and the best interests of the people; therefore, resolved—

1. That we urge all ministers of the gospel, and editors of religious journals, to keep the subject of temperance in all its phases before the people.
2. That we believe it to be the duty of every enlightened christian citizen, not only to endeavor to reform the drunkard, but also to give his influence and efforts to suppress this curse of curses.
3. That the renting of property for the liquor business is inconsistent with the principles of our holy religion and should not be tolerated in the Church.
4. That we urge the strict enforcement of the discipline against any who may, in anywise, be connected with the manufacture or sale of aleoholic beverages, and also against those who indulge in intoxicants.
5. That we most heartily endorse the organization and work of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, in opposition to the liquor business, and that we pledge them our co-operation.

RUMSEY SMITHSON, President.

J. C. JONES, Secretary.

REPORT
WOMEN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY
OF THE Baltimore Conference.

To the Bishop and Members of the Baltimore Annual Conference of the M. E. Church, South:

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN: We are grateful that we can, in any degree, report progress in the work of the Women's Missionary Society of the Baltimore Conference; yet, even with the increase, the sum total seems only as a single sheaf garnered, where many are required to meet the increased demands. In the Nashville Advocate of to-day, (March 7,) we have, from the pen of Bro. O. G. Mingledorff, another testimony to those of experience in the foreign field. He plainly shows the importance and necessity of Christian women engaging in the work of evangelizing the heathen nations, and says, in China "there is work for every woman who wishes to consecrate herself to it—work which is next to impossible for men to do." We do most earnestly desire to have our women know and enjoy the privilege of, in this way, serving and honoring our Master, but we cannot reach them and accomplish this without the assistance and co-operation of our ministers. We feel whatever of success has been achieved through human instrumentality, has been due largely to the interest manifested by the brethren of the ministry, and in some places, it is only necessary that your influence and superior judgment be used to arouse our women to activity. Will you not aid us, and wherever it is practicable, organize auxiliary societies, and in every congregation so present the subject that during the coming year, we shall, at least, be able to count members in every Church within the bounds of the Baltimore Conference. Owing to the inclemency of the weather in March, we thought it more convenient to hold our annual meeting in October, during which month of last fall, we convened in Middletown, Va., where we were most kindly and cordially entertained. The occasion was one of interest and profit, and we had the comforting assurance of the presence of the Holy Spirit. Since then, communications from some have cheered us with tidings that the impressions made were as seed in good ground. Bros. Tyler, March and Harris rendered us invaluable assistance by their kind words of encouragement, and by aiding us in the discharge of our duties. Now, brethren of the Baltimore Conference, to whom we naturally look for counsel and sympathy in all spiritual undertakings, we most sincerely seek your support and hearty co-operation, trusting in "Him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think."

MRS. F. E. BOND,
Pres. W. M. Society, Balto. Conf.

LIFE OF JOHN WESLEY !!

By REV. B. W. BOND.

OF THE BALTIMORE CONFERENCE.

SOUTHERN METHODIST PUBLISHING HOUSE,
NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE.

Rev. W. G. E. CUNNINGHAM, D. D., Sunday School Editor, writes:

"We are very much pleased with this brief biography of the great founder of Methodism. The doctrines of our Church are not discussed at any length, but what they are, and their power to bless and save men, are exhibited in the experience of Wesley and his fellow-laborers in such manner as to give them a practical value far beyond what an average reader would gather from the learned discussions which characterize works on systematic theology. We commend Brother Bond's Book to our young people and to all our people as a most readable and reliable memoir of one with whose wonderful history all should be familiar."

BISHOP A. W. WILSON, D. D., writes:

"The error and fault of the present generation of Methodists are that they know too little of John Wesley and the men who wrought with him in his great struggle for human souls—for all human souls. They know nothing of the intense convictions which impelled him to the achievement of his broad purpose, the spiritual wisdom which guided him along providential ways to the settlement of the wonderful economy—one and many—in England and America, which has conserved the fruits of his labors, and the preternatural experience, evincing the high possibilities of our humanity, which attested the genuineness of his conviction and gave the key-note to the testimony of the Church for the ages to come. For our young people this knowledge is indispensable. No man can know Methodism who does not know John Wesley."

■ A BOOK that should be in all our Families and Schools.
